Gresham Hears the Burlington CHICAGO March 12th -Judge Gresham's ourt-room and adjacent halls were ewded this afternoon when the application of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad for an order on the Receiver of the Wabash Railway to compel him to receive and handle their freight came up et out at length.

Copies of a telegram were offered, alleged to have been sent by Chief Engineer Arthur on March 2d to M. W. Vernon, at Omah Chairman of the Grievance Committee Brotherhood, reading: "Do only the Brotherhood, reading: "Do only the millionaire banker to pay." not haul any Burlington cars, nor aid them in any way."

The affidavit alleged that similar dispatches had been sent out by Arthur in all directions to the members of the Brotherhood, and many others to the engineers in the employ of the Receiver, and that it could be abundantly established that said Arthur was the main executive officer of the Brotherhood, and as such had inter-fered with property in the custody of the the Brotherhood, and as such had interfered with property in the custody of the Court, and that engineers in the employ of the Court had obeyed his orders, against the laws of the State, the laws of the United the laws of the State, the laws of the United States, and the order of the Court.

Attorney Dexter then opened the case for the Burlington Company by reading the petition and affidavits of the complain ants as filed by them on Friday.

He was followed by Robert T. Lincoln, with the answer of Receiver McNulta, of the Wabash

They asked, further, that the Court issu an order restraining Chief Arthur and the Brotherhood from ordering or causing strike on the Wabash, or any other road, i consequence of the action of these roads in hauling Burlington freight. GRESHAM'S DECISION.

At the close of the arguments which ensued Judge Gresham practically gave his decision when he said he did not think the Burlington Company had any case in the Court. "The Wabash has granted all you ask," said he. "It has promised to receiv your freight, and now you ask the Court to issue an order punishing the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers for an alleged crime which they deny, and against the wishes of the General Manager of the road who is an officer of this Court.

While the Judge thus indicated what hi decision would probably be, he announce that he would take the matter under advisement. The prevailing opinion i ssue any order touching the action of Chie Arthur, or the Brotherhood, on the ground properly regulated by the State laws.

It should not be necessary to repeat what we have already said-that principles, not men, are involved in to-day's political battle in Sacramento. We have distinctly disclaimed charging him with any participation in the frauds that have resulted in the ticket he heads. He is unfortunate, as we have said, in having been the victim of his amiability. It has led him to lend the strength of his standing to a clique whose administration of the affairs of the Republican party in this city has been, never has been, is not and never will be any sort of excuse for such prostitution of power and invasion of the rights of citizens; such domination and cowing enslavement of officials as these conscience- to answer the roll-call of the dead of the less bosses have indulged in. It must be broken up, and these autocrats overthrown. They are thoroughly bad in their methods, and make political activity the means to infamously corrupt ends, at which free men and defend them at all hazards, cannot wink. It is, therefore, keenly to be regretted that the head of their ticket taken up at the last moment to supply a place made vacant by the original nominee, also a good man, who became disgusted with his company and convinced he could not be elected-should be filled by a citizen who had not himself taken part in the corruptions of the bosses His standing and good repute are being used to shield these vicious bosses, who to-day, if they can. must be overthrown, and their power broken up to the foundation. mean and vulgar assault has ever been made upon the sacred right of free men in a free land, "endowed by their Creator with certain inelienable rights, among which are life, libby and the pursuit of happiness," as that made by the organ of the boss tyrants of Sacramento upon Mr. Wolf. It has A overhauled the assessment roll and found that he owns no real estate, and therefore holds he should not be trusted in office.

Here is revelation of offense that smells to heaven. It amounts to a declaration something like this: "Stand back, men of no real estate possessions in Sacramento; your lives of toil and probity and devotion to your home are nothing. The new order be slaughtered-shall command the eleven has gone forth from the headquarters of the boss dictator, and we his subservient tool herald it to the people of Sacramento, No poor man need apply.'

While we have been ready to expect any eccentricity from the evening paper, and by experience taught to be surprised at nothing generally that it utters, we confess that this expression is amazing, even from the sheet that has hypocritically posed as the friend of the poor and the toiling; that has stood as the advo cate of the Georgeism, that would give every man of another's landed possessions

American citizens whose conceptions of political equality are based upon clear comprehension of the underlying principles of free government, will naturally ask s is to determine the qualification for fice? Is the property test to be applied at this late day to determine the sovereignty of the American citizen?"

One loses patience, despite the exercise of cool judgment, when he contemplates the full meaning, and looks forward to the logical outcome of the doctrine advanced in this matter by the apologist for the bosses, and quite justifies himself in exclaiming: "The infamy of such a doctrine ought to blister the tongue that utters it and palsy the hand that pens it. Better are the non-owners of realty whose lives of probity and uprightness are their patent of nobility, than the possessors of newspapers or lands mortgaged kneedeep, whose conception of the scheme of ree Government is so vicious. Better a ousand-fold the honest poor man with property, than the rich boss with lands easurable and treasuries overflowing.'

we mistake not greatly, the just and fair-minded people of Sacramento will today at the polls put their seal of indig nation upon the scurrilous assault made by the bosses' organ upon the poor men of Sacramento, among whom are to be numbered hundreds of her oldest citizens, most devoted friends and the brightest of examples of clean and useful lives. THE EFFECT.

The enemies of reform in political methods declare that the people's triumph to-day will endanger Republican success next fall in the National contest. Repub licans should not be deceived. National campaigns are not to be fought upon such municipal battle lines. The issues between the Republican and Democratic must attain the fullness of complete parties are those of governmental policy triumph all over the land, if free institu- affecting the nation. It is not necessary to national political activity in thirty-eight American States that Mr. Toud shall be elected Fire Commissioner in a California town, because he is cominated by Republican bosses. The momentuous issues that will be debated before the people next summer cannot hinge upon the question whether Ed Short-the man put up by the bosses to or twelve policemen of Sacramento?

A handful of Republicans say they can't "swallow" Democratic candidates; and a corporal's guard of Democrats turn pale at the name of a Republican upon their ticket; but neither class have been so squeamish all these years while voting a mixed ticket for Free Library Trustees always divided between Republicans and Democrats.

Let us be reasoning men rather than partisans; let us stand for Sacramento in ocal affairs rather than for party. Let us work and vote for decency, cleanliness order, law and fair play in the city of our

If Republicans expect to have any party trength to contribute to the defeat of their political opponents in Sacramento next fall, they must husband it now. It will never do to ply the party lash in these minor city elections, when the result is boss rule. Men are becoming very tired of and so disgusted with it, that they are dropping off and deserting the party and efusing to "enthuse" with it when needed ecause they abhor a uniform that bears the name of a master and the coronet of the Rhoads-Daroux-Roeder trinity of boss aristocrats. Respectable Republicans by whole battalions are finding out that they have been wearing the collar for years, and voting the ring will when they fondly supposed they were manifesting their own sovereign power. These voters will leave the party, or refuse to vote at least, and remain deaf to the party call if boss rule continues The result will be Sacramento will be lost to the Republican party utterly. We are to elect legislators next fall But the Republican party majority will disappear before that time, unless boss rule is broken. Even if the ring manages to elect a delegation, it will be useless for good, since it will be representative, not of the people, but of the buying and selling power of the tricksters who are to-day attempting to vote imported repeaters at the polls, and hence valueless as an influence Democrats are very much in the same condition; they are bossed from the same headquarters, and need emancipation quite as much as Republicans. The time has come when both can have it if they will.

THE CRUSADE AGAINST BOSSISM.

EDS. RECORD-UNION: I noticed among the locals of the RECORD-UNION this morning a statement concerning my position in the present complication of political difficulties; and while to others it may be a matter of prime importance, that my position should be correctly understood. My association with the Independent Republicans is entirely due to distinctive ideas and of the local party machinery. a wish for absolute freedom from political slavery. I recognize the fact that there are times and conditions, in the presence of which adherence to party lines is essential to the maintenance of political organiza-tion; but I recognize also the other, not less important fact, that the maintenance of political organization is only desirable when it results in producing the freest expression of popular judgment. When a party ceases to be the instrument by which the popular will may be sustained, its support necessarily results in the carrying out of that which is in opposition every idea of republican government Adherence to an organized body of men whose purposes are effectuated by the practical disfranchisement of all the stronger, purer and better elements, by organized force and unblushing fraud, perpetrated under the immediate observation all who desire to see, is not, in my judgment, a following of the great principles upon which the Republican party was founded. The recent primaries in this city were but a repetition of similar acts which have followed each other in rapid succession for many years in the past, and a Convention made up of representatives elected in the manner which characterized the election of some of the delegates who comwho have availed themselves of his name decent administration of municipal affairs, posed the recent body that placed in nomis now before the r ple, is not, in any fair or just sense, a body

The fact that Democrats were voted at the primary which selected the delegate to the Convention, and thereby defeated the will of the majority of the licans within some of the wards, is of it self sufficient to establish that the result of the election does not reflect the sentiments of the majority of that party. This being true, it is my opinion, that there is nothing in the fact of a nomination from that body which calls for my allegiance and suppor as a member of the party.

I, therefore, as one of the representatives of Republican opinion, believe that I am free to cast my ballot as I please. I do not ndorse the Democratic ticket, but I claim the right, in view of the facts as they seen o me to exist, to exercise the high prerogative of an American citizen and select the icket which I may vote, either from the candidates who are now before the people or from the vast body of the people them-

My position in this matter is due to th fact that I am certain that continued submission to the present method of ruling the politics of this city can only operate as an encouragement of a repetition of the wrongs which have been heretofore perpe rated upon the privileges of citizenship While, therefore, I as one of the Republ cans who refuse to yield further submiss to "boss" and "ring" rule, do not indorse nor in any manner make myself an adher-ent to, the platform or ticket presented by the Democratic party, I shall select thos for whom I desire to vote in such manne as, in my judgment, will subserve the best interests of the people of this city. Very respectfully yours,

A. L. HART.

There is no question whatever but that the large majority of voters in the city are in favor of the coalition ticket, and that the battle for honesty in politics and good city government is won, if the people will be faithful and do their full duty by voting and helping at the polls to-day. Let every self-respecting citizen vote early the ticket that is opposed by the bosses, and which the bosses have imported roughs to defend, and having voted, assist in seeing that others also do their duty, and that illegal voting is prevented.

Their Revolt from Boss Rule the Best Evidence of Inherent Moral Strength. The independent Republican organization at Sacramento has indorsed the Demo tion, as the best means of breaking up the power of the corrupt boss who has hitherto controlled Republican nominations at the Capital. The revolt from the boss rule carries with it a very large proportion of any name submitted to the Committee of Twenty-six, appointed by a large meeting of so-called Independent Republicans, held at the Old Pavilion on the night of the 8th of March, and they having seen fit to indorse the entire carries with it a very large proportion of the Republicans of the city, and the Democratic ticket is likely to be elected by an overwhelming majority. TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF SACRA-

The frauds perpetrated at the recent Re with increased vigor and more compact orpublican primary in the Fourth Ward, and indorsed by the Republican City Conven tion, have made it necessary for the party Sacramento cannot run their municipal to purge itself of the shame of such prac tices by defeating a ticket which could only have been nominated by reversing the will of the majority.

To that end a mass meeting of protest ruffians from the slums of San Francisco to ing Republicans was held at the Pavilior on Thursday evening, March 8, 1888, at which an Executive Committee of twenty-THE Ring cares nothing for the Third six was appointed and charged with the Trusteeship. All it wants is the Chief of duty of nominating a ticket, composed Police and the Fire Commission. With either of Republicans exclusively, or o lican and Democratic politics alike pretty citizens of Sacramento might support in the interests of good government.

Pending action by the committee the Democratic City Convention met and nom nated a most excellent ticket, and mani fested its sympathy with the objects we have in view, by placing thereon a Repub lican candidate for Fire Commissione whose defeat was the special object of the matter of slight importance, to me it is a frauds that led to the measures we have been forced to adopt for the purification of our party politics, and the reorganization

Under these circumstances we have con cluded that our best course is to indorse the Democratic ticket as a whole, and we do therefore cordially recommend the Repub icans of Sacramento to vote for the ticket headed by H. C. Wolf, and we do this as citizens and Republicans having at heart the best interests of our party and the community at large.

We believe that the election of the ticker thus indorsed will benefit our city and purify the Republican party by ridding both of the political bosses and bossism that have disgraced us in the past and threaten at the present time to hand ou party and city over forever to those who make politics their means of livelihood and scruple at no fraud to compass succes By order of the Republican City Central Committee, Sacramento, March 9, 1888. LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING. The Committee of Twenty-six Are No

to be Bulldozed or Intimidated. At noon yesterday the Republican Cen tral Committee of twenty-six met at the office of their Chairman, W. H. Beatty, to roughs and toughs are made to behave themselves. The committee has the moral and financial support of nearly all the business men and first citizens in the city, and to-day they are going to see that every freeman's ballot counts and none other.

The same the same the sums of the Bay; Tarpey, a typical bruiser; Jimmy Leonard, a well-known rough: Divvy Bragg, another of the same ilk, and Jimmy Dwyer, who used to expense to sum the Board he will not vote with Slater to reinstate Corsaw and set up the old the contract by the Board of Trustees for the grading of Twenty-fifth street from H to R, and Twenty-second expect men of political sense to swallow the kind would be allowed. A large number of respectable citizens were selected, men of courage and nerve, men who are willing to fight if necessary manipulations, and this will be far outfor their rights as freemen, who will be sworn in as Deputy Sheriffs and who will see that the laws governing elections shall be enforced and obeyed. A large number those seeking to prevent illegal voting. The only way to effectively prevent this, is of gentlemen were selected to take charge of the ticket tables, and every citizen who wishes to put in a vote for reform, purity of the ballot box and good government citizen do his duty in this regard and fill of the ballot-box and good government will be protected in that discharge of their citizen do his duty in this regard and the city jail until it will hold no more.

The following resolution was adopted The Reorganized Republican City Central Committee will pay a reward of $100 | are not wanted in Sacramento for the arrest and conviction of any person voting or attempting to vote illegally, or of any person buying votes at the city election to be held March 13, 1888."

The committee met again last evening, a quorum being present, and all the details or to-day's campaign arranged. The following resolution was passed:

Resolved, That this committee will continue its efforts to purify and reform the Republican party, and to secure good government in Sacramento city and county. A resolution was also passed that no member of the Central Committee should property-owners, without regard to party, signed a petition asking Governor Waterman to appoint ex-State Treasurer John Weil as one of the Commissioners. The signers represented more than three-fourths of the property values of this city. At the same time petitions were actively circulated in favor of Wm. F. Huntoon, but the disparity of the latter in comparison with the petition in favor of Mr. Weil was so unanimous desire of the people. Now the Rhoads-Roeder-Daroux bosses, by the aid of ballot-box stuffing and buildozing, have nominated Wm. F. Huntoon, and the People—the Independent Republicans who are fighting against the bosses, and the respectable element of the Democrats-regardless of partisanship. have unanimously nominated Mr. Weil for another term. Now let the vote to-day be as large in preponderance for Mr. Weil as were the petitioners to the Governor.

The eyes of scores of boss-ridden commun ities are centered on Sacramento. Show then how to throw off the galling yoke.

A. J. Stevens Memorial Organization. Representatives from the car and loco motive shops and Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers met last evening in the office of the General Master Mechanic at the railroad shops and effected a permanent lavor of the followorganization by the election of the following officers: President, Wm. McKenzie; Vice-President, Jabez Turner; Treasurer, E. M. Luckett, and Secretaries, C. C. Bonte M. Luckett, and Secretaries, C. C. Bonte and B. A. Worthington. As there is a difference of opinion as to whether the Slater and Huntoon as Commissioners, the difference of opinion as to whether the proposed memorial should be in the form proposed memorial should be in the form of a statue or monument, and as to the location, whether it should be placed over the grave at Oakland or in the Plaza at Sacramento, the Secretaries were directed. Sacramento, the Secretaries were directed to communicate with the employes here and elsewhere and get the vote of every for H man on the two propositions, after which a trade. Board of Directors will be formed to complete the arrangements. The meeting adjourned subject to the call of the President.

Watch it from the time it leaves your hand till it falls in the box. A favorite device of stuffers and vote thieves is to receive the ballot with one hand, pass it to the other, and turn to the clerk to announce the name. In that turn the ballot is changed sometimes. We the clerk to announce the name. In that turn the ballot is changed sometimes. We know it has been often done in that way. Keep your eye upon your ballot all the time. Among those found around the bo ses' headquarters last night waiting for their money and orders were the following: Big-Neck Smith, a noted bruiser who claims to have a vote in this city; Ned Foster, who at one time ran the Elite Theaier; a man by the name of Percie, who some two years ago murdered a young man secured Huntoon's nomination? For he knows, no one denies, that the Fourth Ward delegation, without whose votes Huntoon could not have been nominated, was the result of most outrageous fraud, corruption, ballot-box packing, bull-dozing and ruffianism. Huntoon was a "boss" of that primary. There he made his fight.

Brother Nichols' Funeral.

The funeral of Brother Elijah Nichols, late Professor of Elocution at the Christian Brothers College, who died suddenly of paralysis on Sunday afternoon, will take place from the Catholic Church, at nine o'clock this morning, when a solemn requiem mass will be said. The deceased was 65 years of age, and had been a Pro-fessor in the college about a year.

BEWARE OF STORIES AGAINST ANTI-BOSS CANDIDATES TO-DAY, AND ABOUT INTENTIONS OF THE INDEPENDENT REPUBLICANS. THE OPPOSITION WILL MANUFACTURE ALL SORTS OF LIES TO INJURE THE ANTI-BOSS MOVEMENT.

Some Slight Discrepancies.

One of the methods being put forth in certain quarters, for the defeat of Tim Lee, Mr. Lee had visited the RECORD-UNION office and made a written promise that if elected he would be a regular three-story Puritan, to wit: that he would close all games in Sacramento; that he would close all saloons at 12 o'clock each night and would enforce the Sunday law. This is correct with the slight exceptions that Mr. Lee has never visited this office, nor made any promise; there is no law by which saloons can be closed at 12 o'clock or any other hour, and lastly, there are no people stop it by electing Tim. Lee Chief of Police and Messrs. Weil and Comstock Fire Commissioners to-day?

A vote for Short is a vote to make policemen he servitors of the bosses, instead of your servints, to protect your lives and property.

They Knew Him.

EDS. RECORD-UNION: The Bee has stated that H. C. Wolf is a native of Maine. Permit me to say that, as usual, that jour nal is incorrect. Mr. Wolf is a native of Findlay, Ohio, for so long the home of "Petroleum V. Nasby" (David R. Locke) There are to-day among Sacramento's citizens no less than six who spent their boy hood days with Mr. Wolf in that little Ohio town. They er joyed his society there, and are pleased to recognize him as their fellow-citizen now. Four of the six are Republicans and two are Democrats, every one of whom will to-morrow cast his ballo for Henry C. Wolf and the entire reform Sacramento, March 12, 1888.

F. Mason, Inby "boss" practices, he should, if a resident here, act with the Independent Repubicans and vote the Democratic ticket. He said that when necessity brought about re-volt in the party, it should be made as effective as possible, to positively show to the perpetrators of crime under boss rule hat they would not be longer tolerated. Watch the Scroggs Building Residents.

The Inspectors of Election and challengers in the Third Ward should keep a close watch to-day upon those who give their residence as "In the Scroggs building." That old runway is made to do duty every election as the residence of from one hundred to five hundred voters, not one in ten of whom ever resided there or are entitled to vote. The only way is to challenge every one not known, and who claims to hail from "Scroggs' building." Remember this corner of fraud and iniquity requires especial attention to prevent grossest frauds.

"I will state for the benefit of the committee and all present that the Board of Trustees made these appointments, as a Board, previous to the primary election, and we guarantee this, that if that primary had taken place before the selection of this Board there would have been one or two, at least, who would not have been appointed. The Mayor-According to that opinion we would have no power at all. Mr. White insisted that the provisions in relation to the appointing of Judges and Inspectors of election were simply advisory. The validity of the election did not depend apon them at all. He was willing to stake his reputation as a man and a lawyer upon the proposition that an election would be valid if the Board did not pro-claim it at all. In a special elec-tion it was different. Then it was necessary to proclaim the election. The Board had the undoubted right to make any changes it deemed necessary, and they ought certainly to be convinced of the necessity of making some changes in this ease. That the people demand that there should be some change made, I think every convinced that your body would not have appointed these men to those positions if

The Mayor—Personally I am willing to go with any member of your committee and request any member of that Board to Trustee Ryan-That is the way I feel about it. The Mayor-If we have any right to re

The Mayor suggested that the matter go over for a couple of hours, in order that Mr. Catlin might appear and argue the question. Just at this point Mr. Catlin entered and was called upon by the Mayor to state his views. It took some time to make him understand what subject was under discussion. He appeared entirely innocent of any knowledge that there was any dif-ference of opinion in regard to the powers of the Board, and wanted to know whether of the Board, and wanted to know whether there were "too many Democrats on the Board, or what was the matter with all these people."
